THE foregoing Return is confined to such persons as had been committed to the Gaol previous to Sessions of the Peace; but the far greater number of persons tried at Sessions for the year 1823, were those who gave bail before the Magistrates for appearing to answer the charges alleged against them, and who by reason of giving such bail were not committed to gaol for trial, and which is most generally the case with respect to Assaults.

John Watters,
Clerk of the Peace City Kilkenny.
